More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of.

Medieval Europe with all its pageantry is but a fascinating dream to those of us who live in this age of supersonic speed and atomic energy. Nevertheless its influence is still felt today in architecture, in literature, in design, in advertising.

In choosing this theme for our Unaliyi, however, we looked beyond these material facts to the symbolic significance of this period. As the knight represented the ultimate in manhood, so we, as seniors, are striving to attain that goal. As he sought for the Holy Grail, we, too, will soon be going forth to seek for something greater than ourselves.

Following the advice of St. Paul, let us leave our high school carrying the shield of faith, the breastplate of righteousness, and the sword of truth. Equipped with such invincible armor, we, the seniors of 1952, are assured of success.

D.Kirkpatrick

Congratulations to the Class of 1952. You are graduating in a year teeming with modern miracles far greater than anything Merlin ever produced with his magic.

You have been the leaders in high school; now you have the opportunity to become the leaders in the adult world. You can become the industrial tycoons, the influential secretaries, the great artists and musicians, the ministers, the teachers and the educators, but you must be willing to pay the price in endless hours of work and study.

Follow the gleam of knowledge, of moral teachings, of spiritual values which has been presented to you at S.H.S. Make tomorrow yours!

FRANCES CAROL WEINERT
ELIZABETH MAY FISHER

Dedicamus

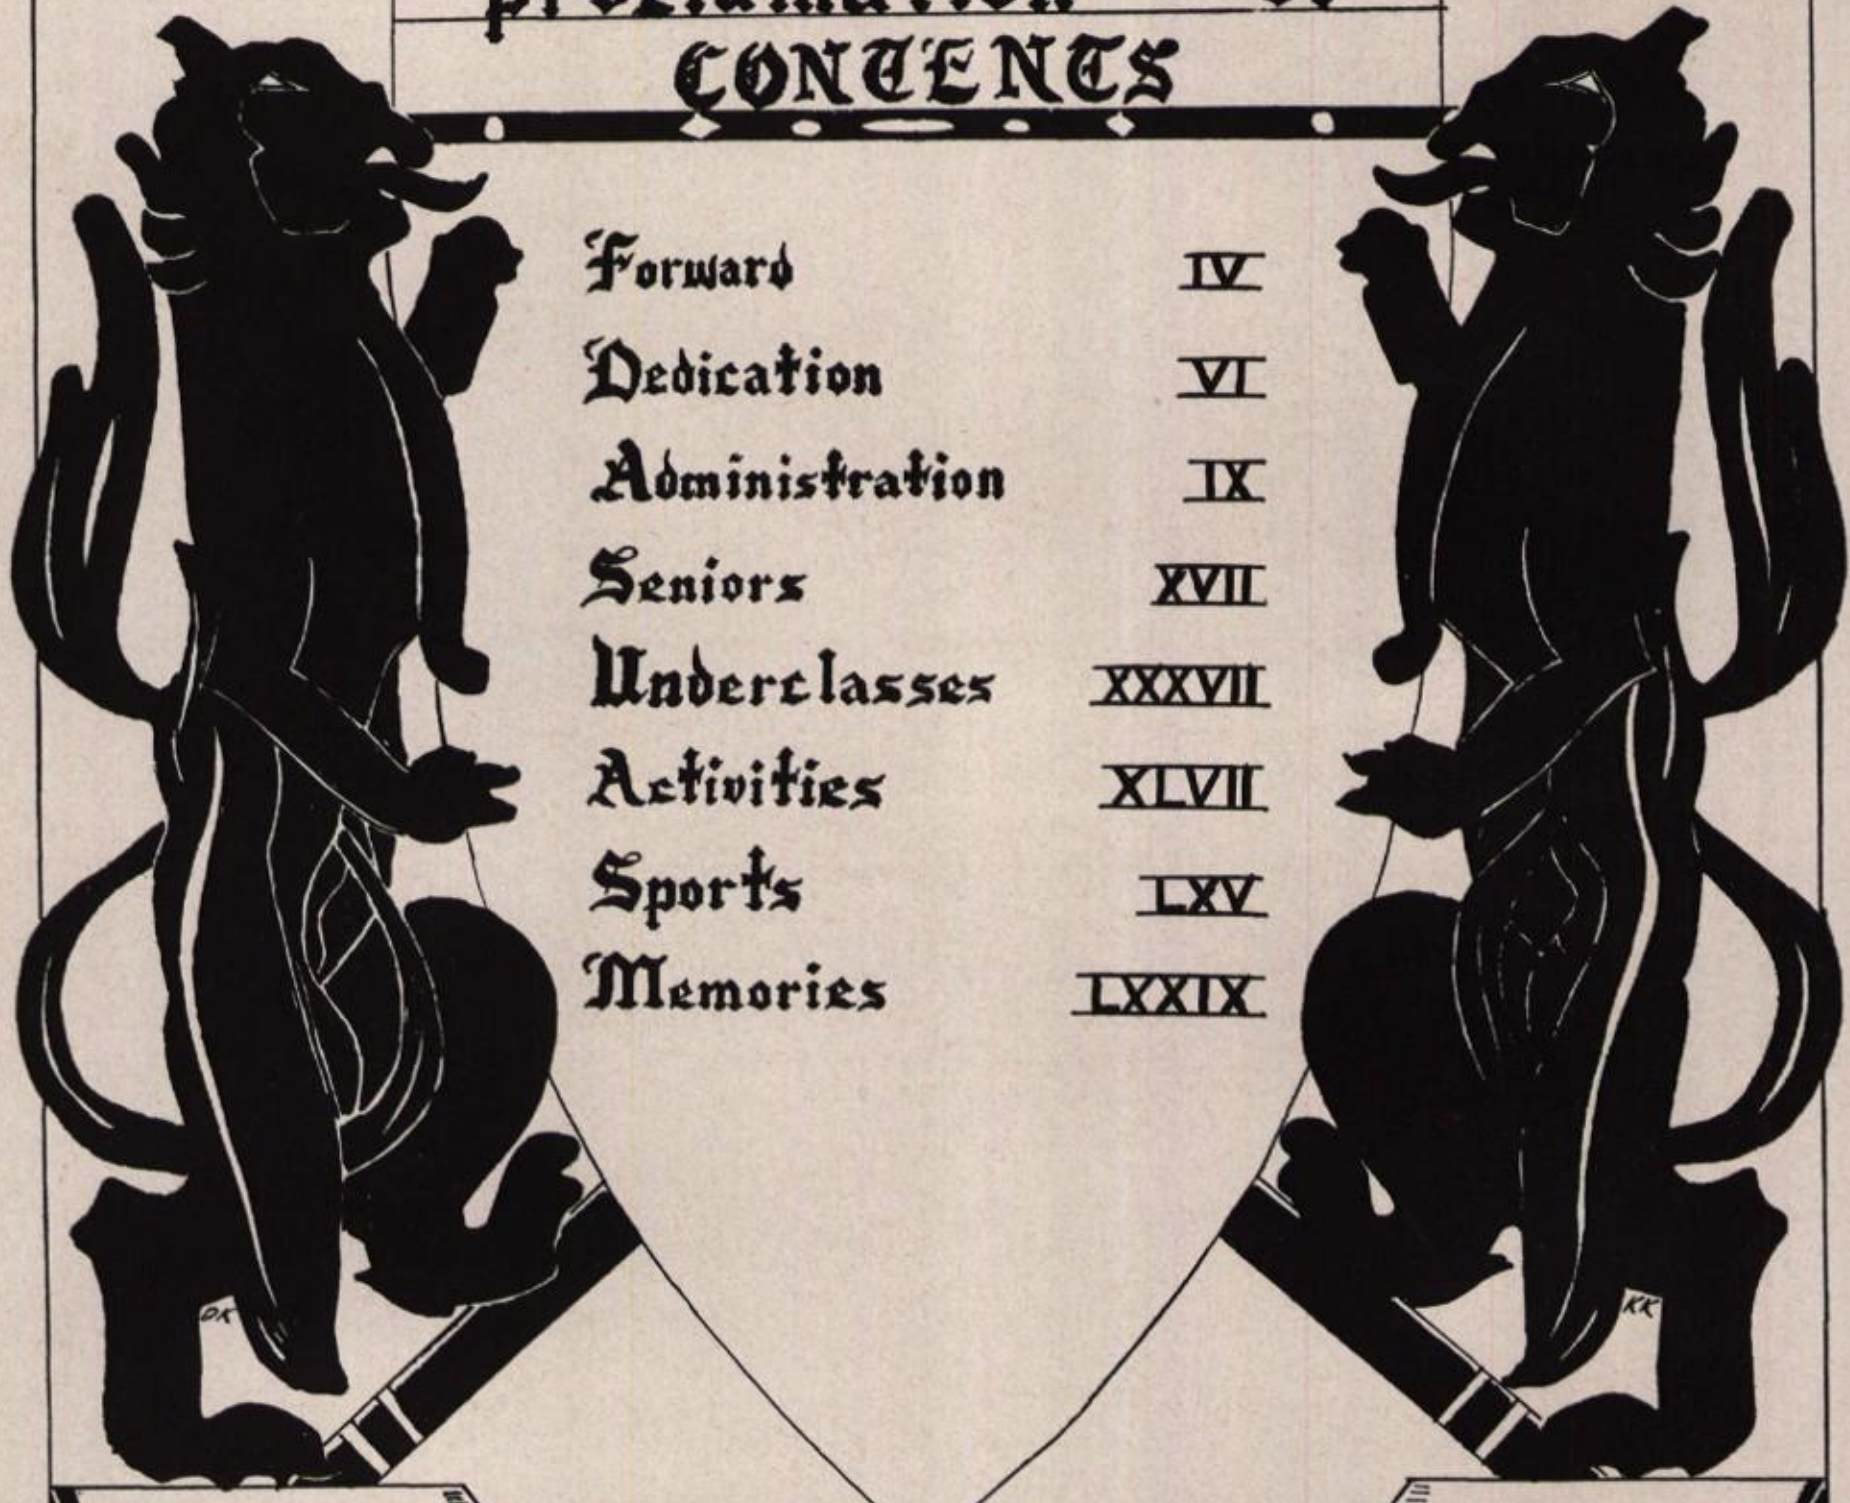

Books—new books with multi-colored jackets, old books with favorite stories—a winter garden, sending its green shoots endlessly upward, golden sunshine on glass tabletops, peace and quiet, the peculiar kind which only a library can produce, will always bring back memories of Miss Weinert and the library at Souderton High School.

Composition paper, stacked neatly on a desk or distributed in lightning fashion, volumes of records—Hamlet, Macbeth, Henry V, Lost Horizon—letters from service men; Emerson, Chaucer, Idylls of the King will always carry us back to room 204 and our English classes wtih Miss Fisher.

Miss Weinert and Miss Fisher are constant companions and work together to make Souderton High School one of the finest in the Bux-Mont League. For their earnest efforts to solve our problems, for their faithful chaperoning of our dances and our trips to the Youth Concerts, for their skill in directing our plays, for their enthusiastic encouragement of our sports, and for their shining example of school spirit, we proudly dedicate to them the 1952 edition of the Unaliyi.

SOUDERTON BOARD OF EDUCATION

GREETINGS, CLASS OF 1952:

An important lesson which life has taught us is that you cannot get something for nothing. The care and effort that you put into the completion of a task will reward you with a job well-done. Recalling your high school experiences you realize the importance of this attitude. Hard work and determination are necessary if you would be successful. As you continue your education or enter the business world—make it a part of yourself to accomplish everything to the best of your ability and the result will gratify you.

You have our best wishes and fondest hopes as you begin your contributions to life.

E. M. CROUTHAMEL
Supervising Principal

"Wise to resolve and patient to perform"

CLASS OF 1952:

I know that I express the feelings of the faculty when I congratulate you at the close of your high school days. You now join an alumni family numbering well over two thousand.

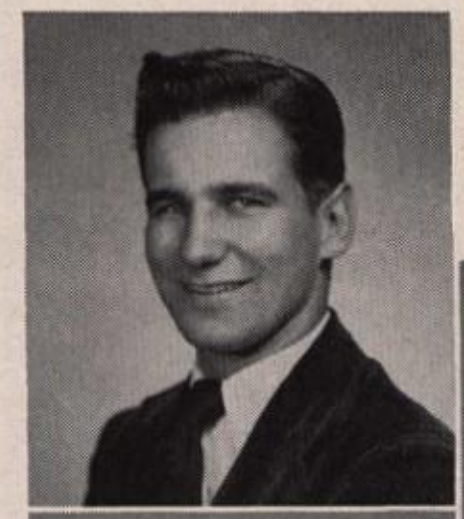

From our first commencement class of four in 1894 till today those who preceded you in receiving their diplomas have witnessed a national pattern of normalcy, war, depression, prosperity—repeated once and again. How poignant must have been their feelings as they faced their times on their commencement days!

And now you enter upon your era with all of its cross currents of characteristics and challenges.

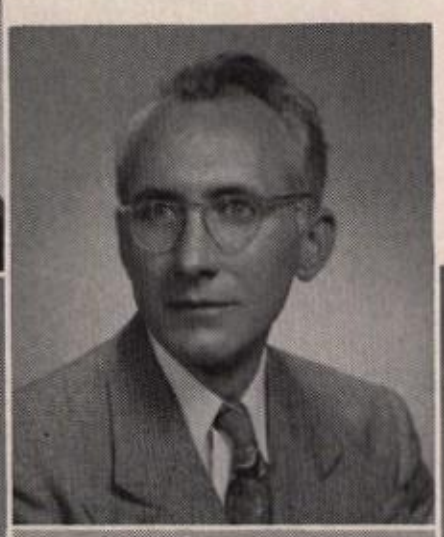

While the pressures of forces outside yourselves may be disquieting, our anticipations for you are bright; and you will always have our continued interest and best wishes.

Activities

"Ah, ye knights of the pen!
May honor be your shield, and truth tip your lances."

We of the Unaliyi staff have earnestly endeavored to publish a yearbook which will bring pleasant memories to all its readers in the years to come. Although it is impossible to record every single event in which we were involved in our short span here at S. H. S., we have tried to condense, in these eighty-eight pages, the highlights of the past four years. If a future glance through this publication brings to you vivid recollections of your high school experiences, our efforts will not have been in vain.

The production of this book was only possible through the co-operation of the editors, business managers, typists, photographers, artists, and many other members of our class. Special recognition should be given to Miss Gerhart, who devoted much time and effort so that we, the Class of '52, might have a worthwhile yearbook. Our special thanks are also extended to Miss Fisher and Miss Weinert, our other advisors.

It is the sincere desire of the Unaliyi Staff that this yearbook of '52 will be a living memorial to the wonderful institution of education which we proudly call OUR high school.

SUSIE THE SIREN

"F. and W. Production Now Under Way" read the headlines in the ARROWHEAD NEWS. That was the prelude to an exciting adventure in the realm of acting. After four weeks of rehearsals under the direction of Miss Fisher and Miss Weinert, the long awaited night of November 3 arrived.

Backstage, hearts began to flutter, for it was almost time to begin. The make-up artists added the finishing touches, and even Mr. Crouthamel was amused at the results.

Curtain time at last! Excitement ran rampant, but once the audience let out its first bellow of laughter most of the tension ceased, and each student became the character he was portraying.

Susie the Siren proved to be a riot, especially when John Bergey, as Jim, made his appearance disguised as a sweet old lady, with bunions, and when Janet Bickel blew her super bubbles. Wasn't the plot terrific? Susie wanted Jim to prove his love for her by getting her one of Miss Oakey's flowers and by painting "Beat Weston" on their opponent's school doors. Meanwhile, Gussie and Petey schemed to get the flower for Jim and do the painting for him, also. Susie's friends got in on the secret and more trouble brewed. When the opposing teams met head-on in the Reynold's home, a free-for-all followed. Wasn't Miss Oakey furious when she discovered her prize chrysanthemum was missing? Luckily Dugan, the cop, came to her rescue. For a while it seemed as if Mrs. Comstalk wasn't going to give Southern High a new gym, but of course everything turned out fine.

The play ended; the curtain closed; a whoop of joy and relief went up from backstage. What a presentation that was, and what a lot of fun for everyone!

TO BLUSH UNSEEN

The plot of the story centers around Sweetberry College. Like any other college, it has its usual quota of students; serious-minded ones working their way through college, like Dotty; light-hearted ones who are forever borrowing money from someone, like Gloria and Marabella; book worms who study and get A's in chem, like Lee; and unfortunates, like Smedley, the college Casanova, and his roommates, Gutsy and Hanover, who are always getting in and out of trouble.

The whole campus starts to buzz when things begin to disappear mysteriously, such as President Eckman's dog and even Smedley's girl friends. Everyone, including his best pals, suspects Smedley, for he is the No. 1 trouble-maker on campus. His story is innocent but incriminating; nevertheless, Gutsy and Hanover stick to him; eventually, they manage to pull themselves out of trouble.

Romance has a main part, too. Gutsy teams up with Cora, who formerly had bragged of never having been kissed. Smedley, also, has women trouble with Lee, his "ex"; Wanda, his present girl friend; and Daisy, who's different. However, he is just an average fellow with far more than his share of troubles, but—"all's well that ends well."

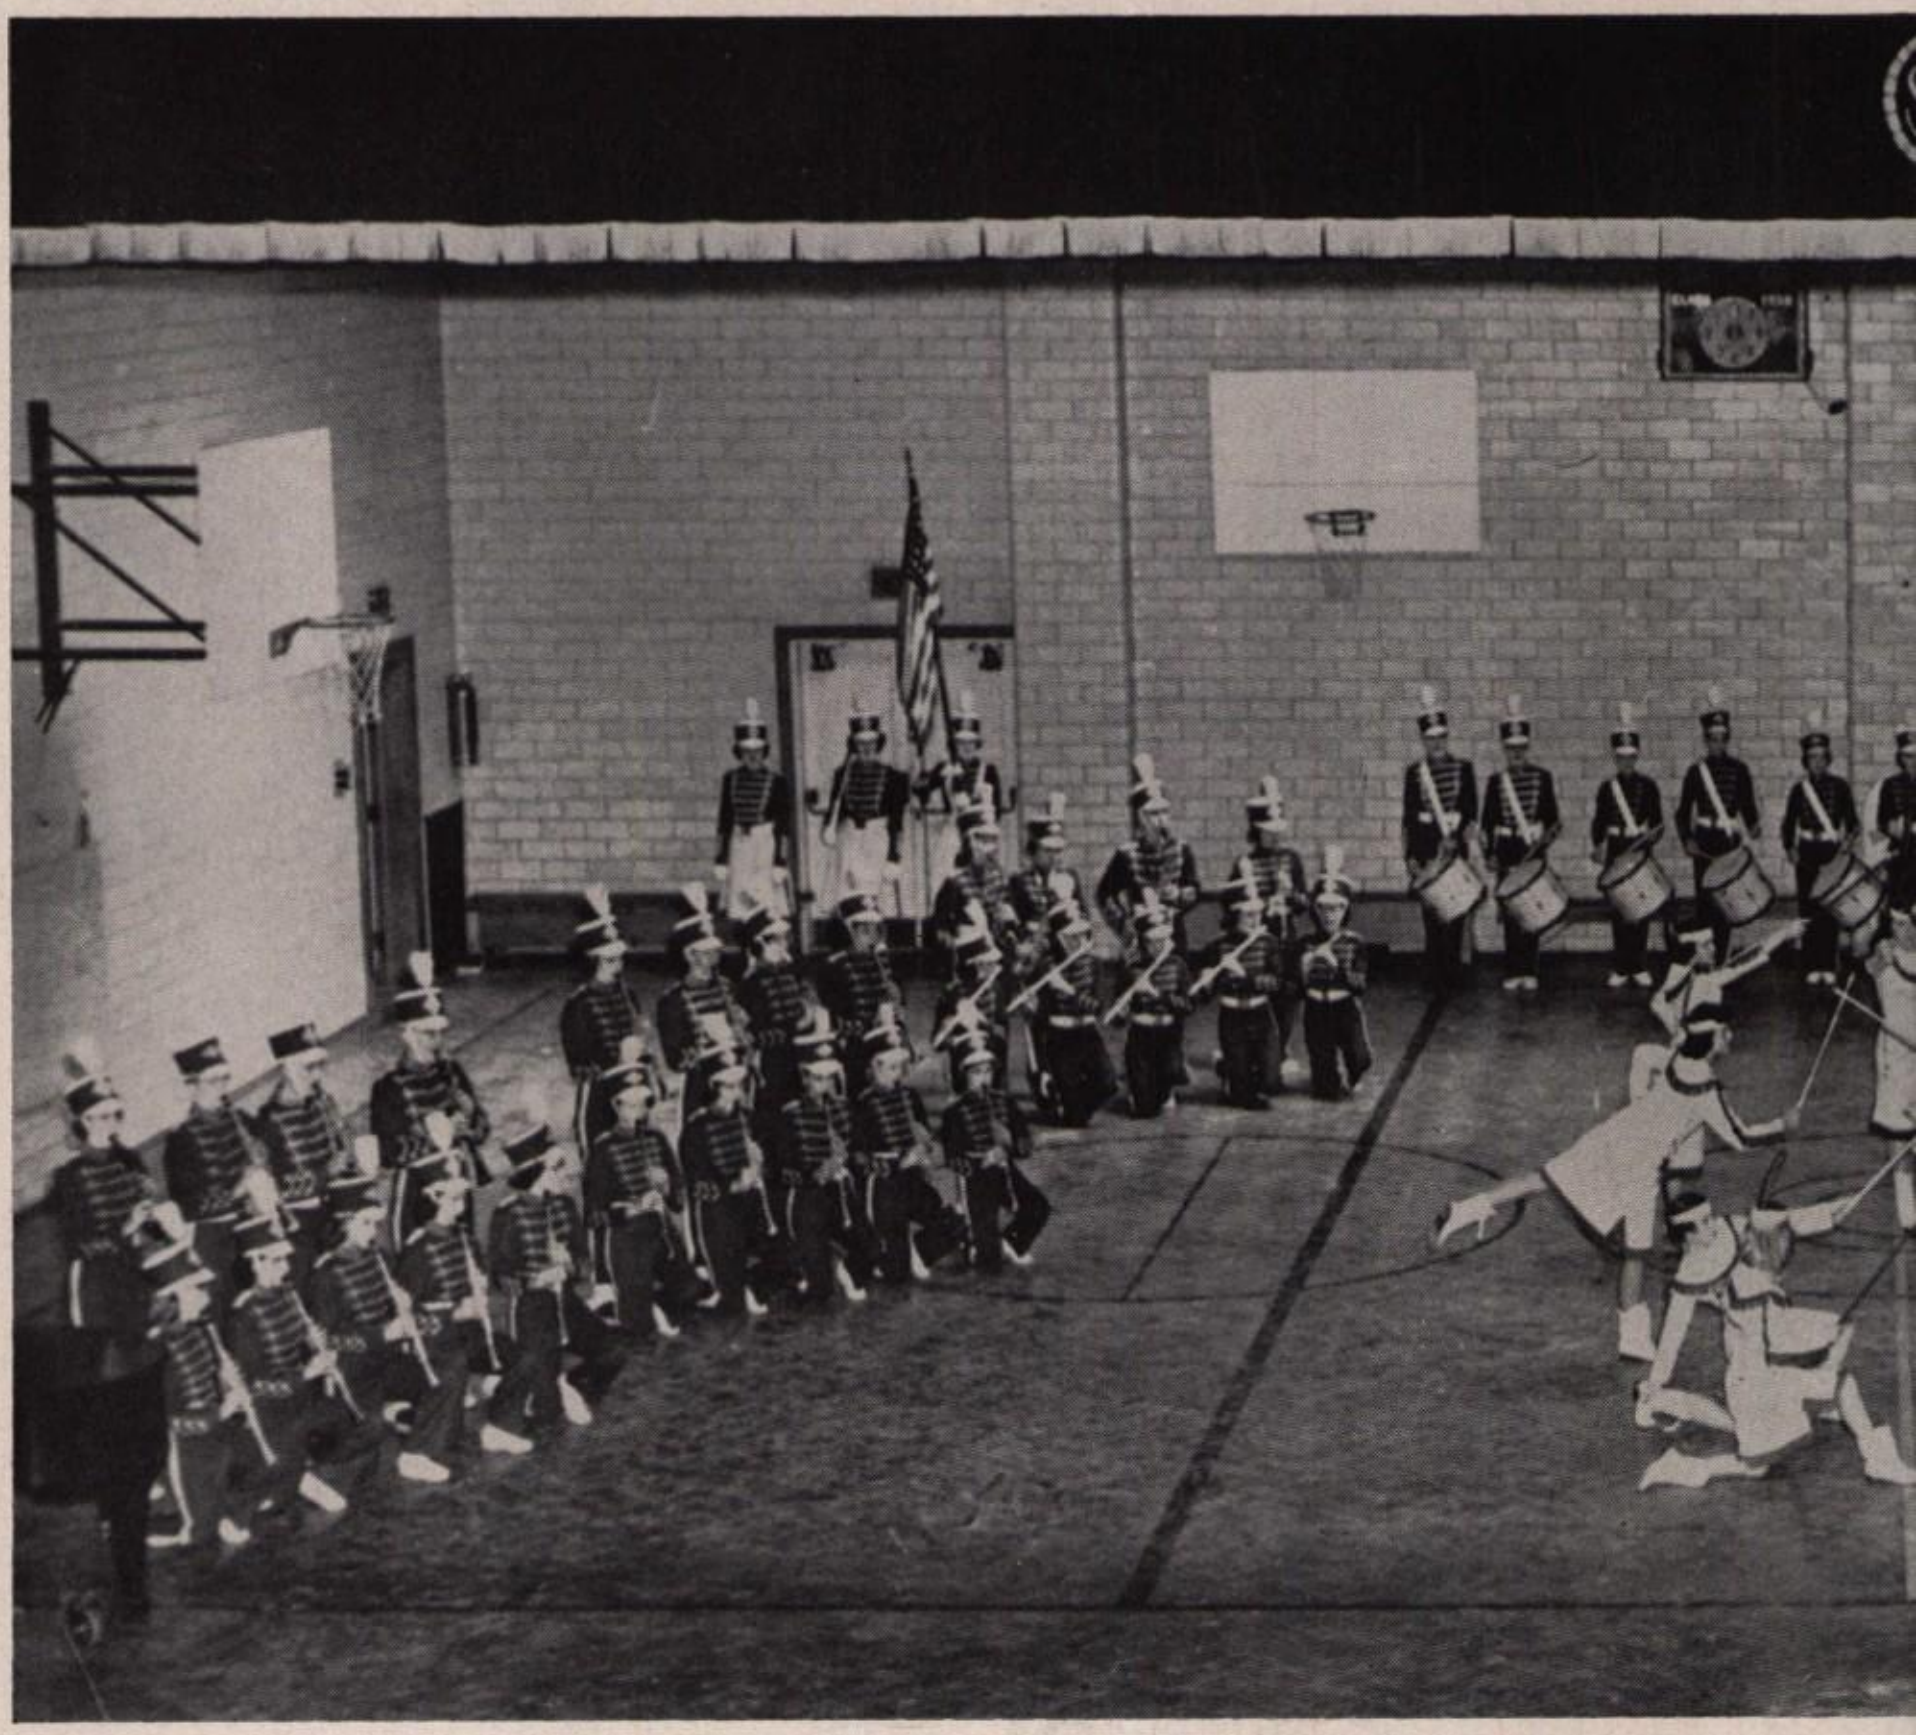

Twentieth Century

Of all the extra-curricular activities here at Souderton High, there is probably none that has added so much to the prestige and reputation of the school as has the band. This year the band, under the direction of Maestro Maurice Foulke, is larger than ever, an impressive organization of sixty-two musicians, ten majorettes, and six color guards. It has performed at every football game, staged spectacular halftime shows at home basketball contests, marched in numerous local and nearby parades, played at every assembly, and has given two fine concerts in conjunction with the chorus. Last June the band journeyed to Atlantic City to experience the thrill of marching in the grand parade at the International Lion's Convention.

Several important improvements were made in the band's equipment during the past year. The percussion corps was completely outfitted with eight snappy white pearl drums. Many of the band members received new uniforms, and the majorettes were fitted with characteristic, Indian-style costumes. The Souderton-Telford Kiwanis Club presented the necessary equipment for dramatic "black-light" effects to be used at future basketball shows.

Members of the band participated in the All Bux-Mont Band Concert, held in the S. H. S. auditorium, and also in the Southeastern District Band.

Starting the year with a somewhat green group of young musicians, Mr. Foulke has developed an excellent musical organization of which we may all be proud. With fifty experienced members returning to action next year, the 1953 edition of the S. H. S. Band should be bigger and better than ever.

"When mercy seasons justice"

Student Council is composed of representatives from each homeroom, class, and extra-curricular organizations. During the past year, their activities have included the handling of the Red Cross, March of Dimes, and Crusade for Freedom drives, support of a refugee child, election of a "Citizen of the Week" and sponsorship of several school dances. In addition, council members have served as hall monitors. Representatives attended the Tri-County Student Council Conventions to compare ideas with other schools.

The members of Student Council have tried to make Souderton High a better and more democratic institution. They are to be commended for their faithful service.

Senior Assembly is the only form of meeting held for the entire student body and conducted by its members. This organization meets approximately every third Monday. These meetings not only educate the students in parliamentary procedure, but also inform and entertain them.

The most popular meetings are held in observance of such holidays as Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter. Other popular programs are musical programs and quizzes.

This year there was a change in faculty advisors and Miss Felty has been in charge of the programs. Senior Assembly is one meeting which everyone enjoys.

"But words are things and a small drop of ink,
Falling like dew, upon a thought produces
That which makes thousands, perhaps millions think."

Every Tuesday, seventeen assiduous students meet in Room 101 during the last period to plan the ARROW-HEAD news to be published in the Souderton Independent the following week. The reporters have Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday in which to gather and compile the necessary facts and information into interesting articles which are due promptly at 3:10 on Friday afternoon. All these articles are checked by the staff advisor, Mrs. Kleist, and then sent to the printing office.

The duties of the staff are to scout for any interesting or exciting events pertaining to school. This year, Marilyn Dorn, John Bergey, and Jack Hillegass headed the sports department, reproducing in vivid fashion every athletic event in S. H. S. Sandra Greenspun and Alice Hunsicker lead the way in writing editorials and other news items to appeal to John Q. Public.

We extend many thanks to Mrs. Kleist for giving us numerous suggestions and aid in composition. Those who graduate realize that it has been a worthwhile experience. Writing for the school paper is in itself an educational pastime, and it will undoubtedly prove of great value to those who go on to college.

To those who will follow in our footsteps in coming years, we, the senior editors, wish all the luck and success possible for the three grand years in which you have the honor of being on the ARROWHEAD staff.

"The pen is the tongue of the mind"

Another successful season for the Indian Echo, our school magazine, has come to an end. Mr. Bold, the capable advisor of this publication, spent many hours helping the staff prepare a bigger and better issue each time. His guidance, along with the co-operation of the staff, enabled the magazine to emerge packed with poetry, jokes, stories, puzzles and pictures.

Opportunity knocked for each student at S. H. S. when the staff opened a drive for contributions. Short stories were particularly in demand. One of the highlights of the year was the baby contest. Adorable photographs of ten lucky seniors were published in one issue and everyone enjoyed guessing their identity. This, plus other items of timely interest, helped push the Indian Echo over the top.

Thanks are also due to Mr. Gazdick, who had full charge of the printing, and Miss Treichler, who supervised the art work. Altogether, the staff and the advisors have reason to be proud of their work.

There must be something to the above adage, when a group of energetic, boisterous students can sit down in room 110 under the direction of Miss Alice Greeger, and fill the room with harmonious song.

The chorus members take their music seriously, however, for they realize that their combined vocal talents bring pleasure to many listeners as well as to themselves. At Christmas time both the chorus and the band gave a beautiful Candlelight Service. At Easter time they again presented a very effective program. Besides these two main presentations, the chorus made its appearance in assemblies a number of times throughout the year.

"At your service"

S. H. S. possesses a snappy corps of Usherettes chosen from the Junior class. Anyone who has seen them in action knows that recognition should be given them for the fine job they have done. Those who attended various school activities this year were undoubtedly greeted by one of the thirty-two attractive girls selected this year.

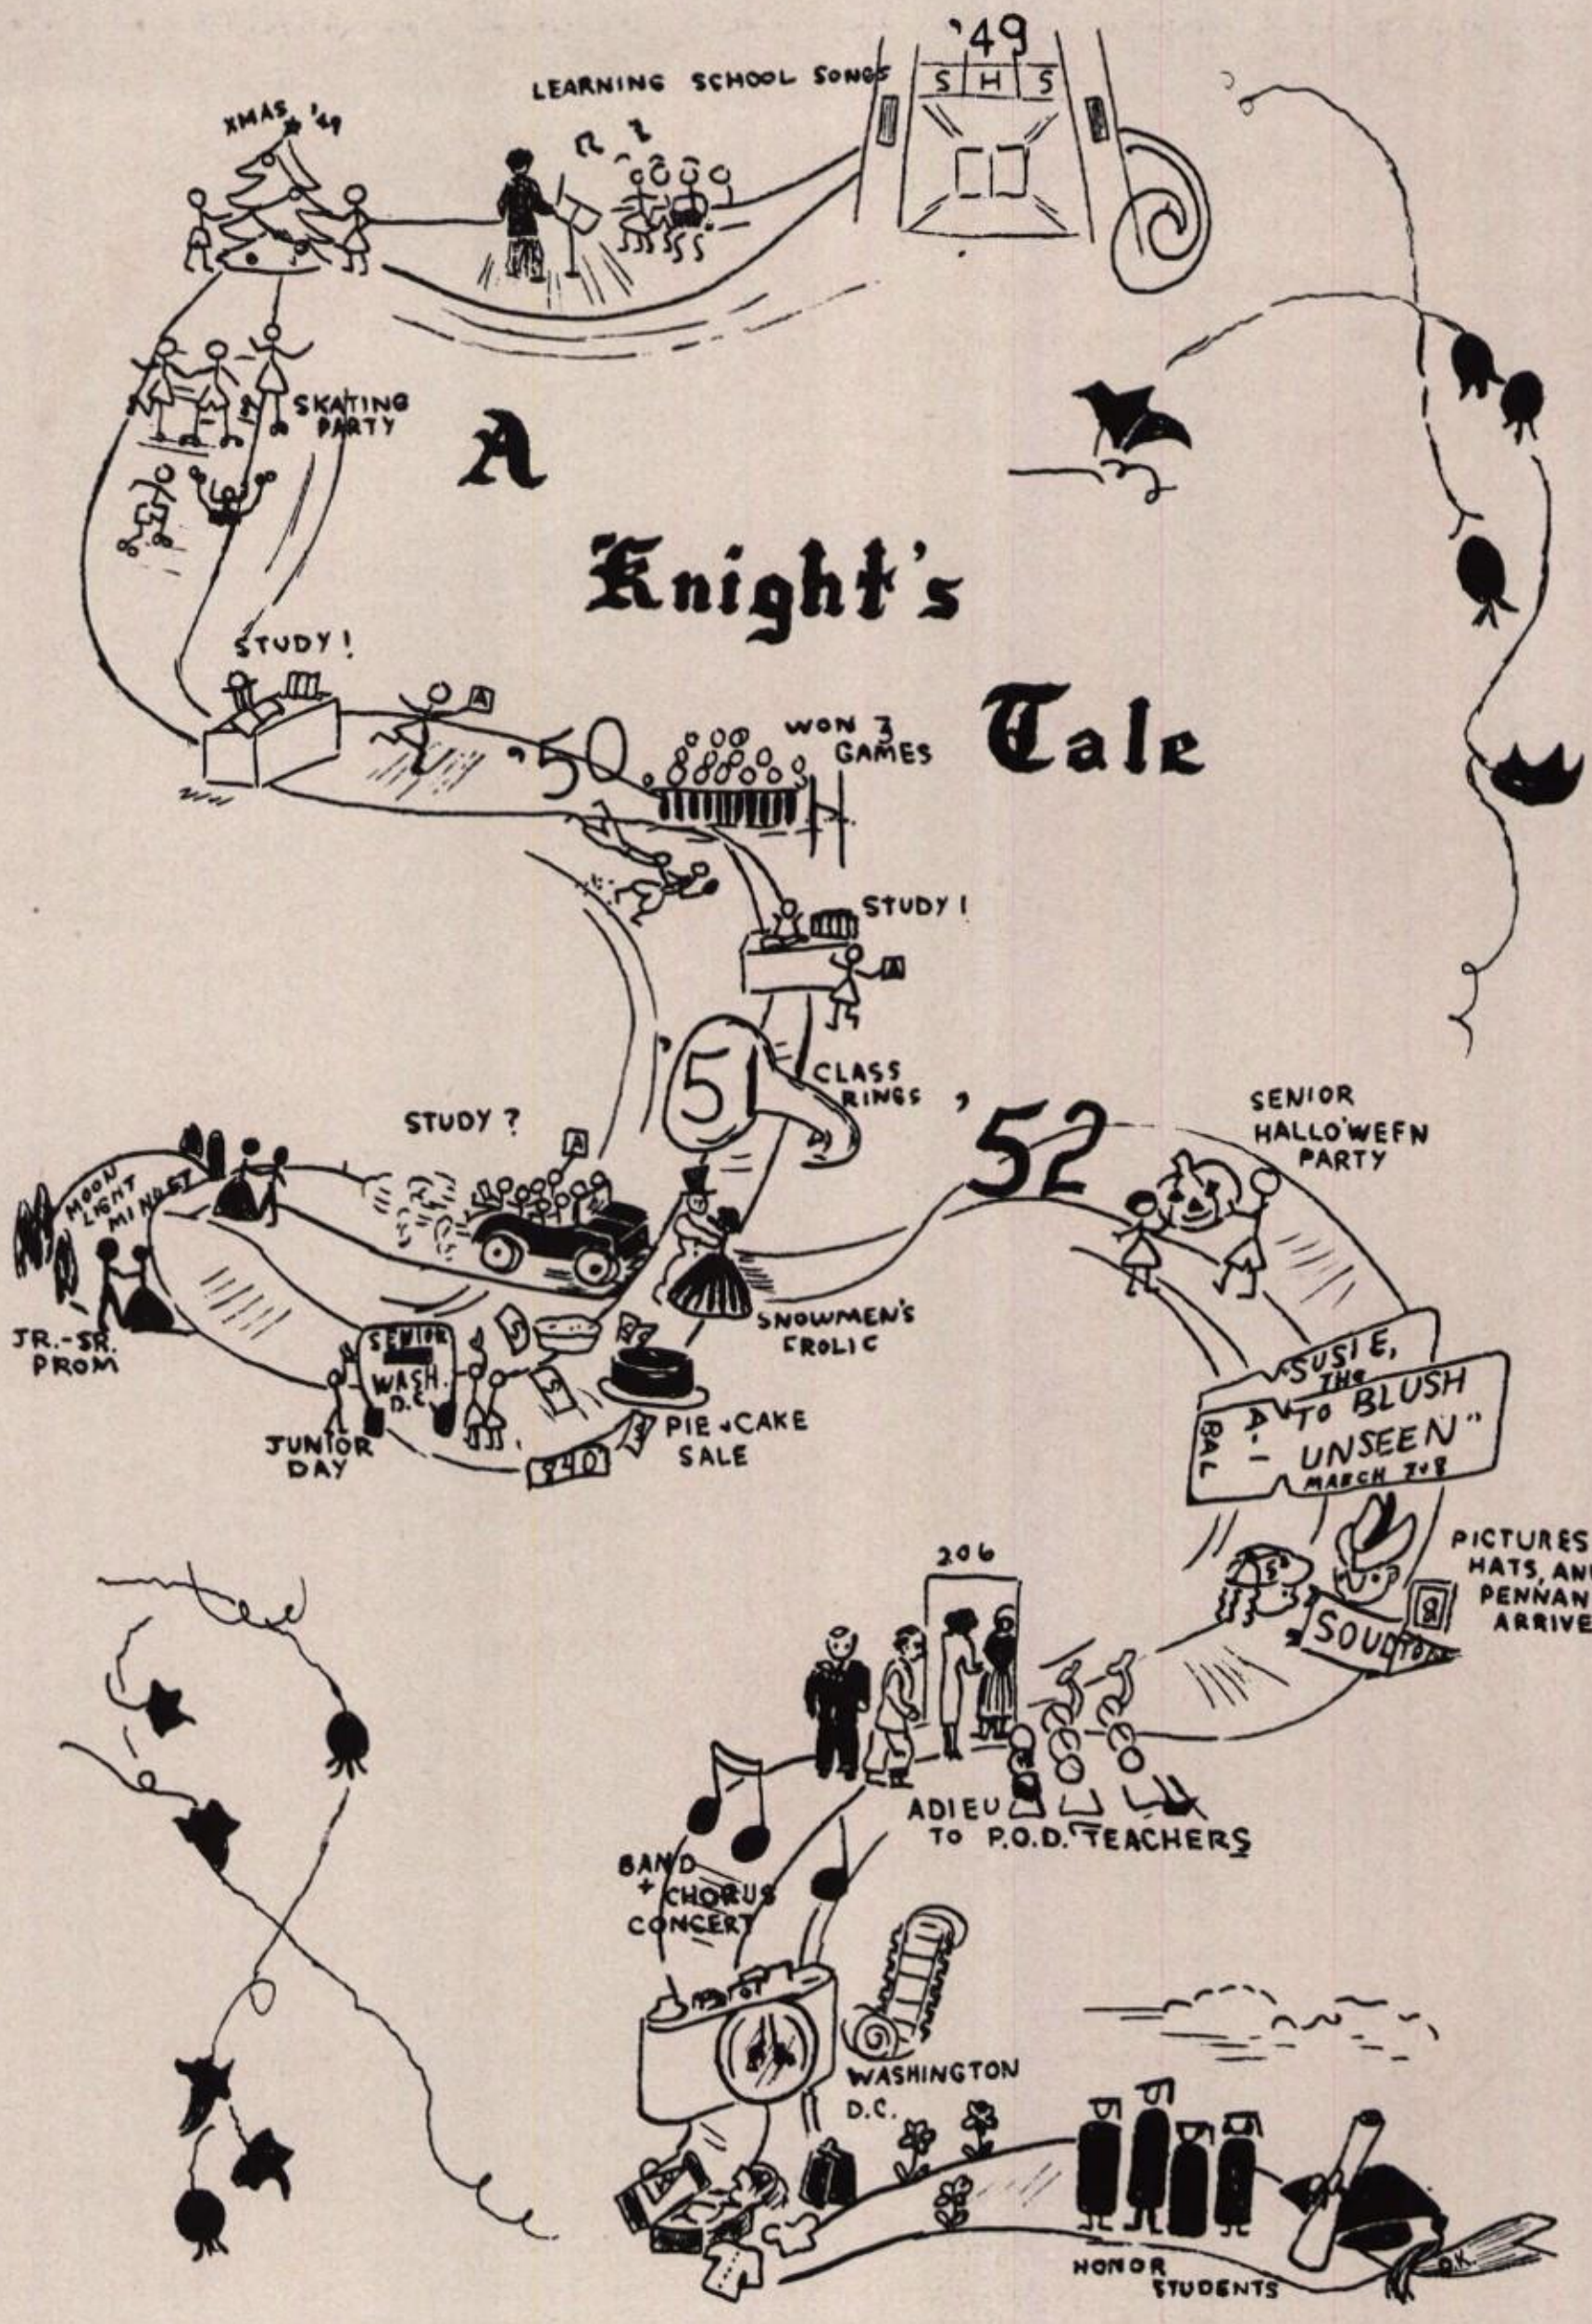

With their smiles and cheery greetings, they added the final touch to our school plays, band and chorus concerts, Baccalaureate, Class Day and Commencement Exercises. We extend our thanks, Juniors, for a job well done.

A Knight's Tale

Sports

Grappling on the Gridiron

A promising football season for the "Big Red" began as thirty-five anxious fellows made their way to Pottstown Community Camp at Earlville, Pa., to spend a week of strenuous practice under the new coach, Kenneth Moyer and his able assistant, Robert Schwab.

After returning home and practicing faithfully for two more weeks, the fighting Indians were in great shape for the opening tussle. Their long hours of training resulted in a 19–6 victory over the Quakers in the initial contest.

Their spirits high, the Redskins entered their second fray with the highly favored Upper Moreland Bears. Although they played fine ball, they lost the game, 21–6. Having played the next five games with no more victories, they terminated the season with another loss to the undefeated Ambler Trojans.

The following boys have worked very hard and earned their letters:

8—JAMES BISHOP . . . center . . . master of the plays . . . hard blocker.

25—* DONALD BENNER . . . halfback . . . brilliant runner . . . hard tackler.

18— STANLEY ERNEY . . . halfback . . . small but mighty in every sense of the word.

21—RICHARD FRANTZ . . . quarterback . . . signal barker . . . accurate passer.

28—ARLIN LAPP . . . end . . . tricky blocker . . . never gave up.

7—MERRILL MOYER . . . guard . . . peppy lad . . . low charger.

34—DAVID MUSSELMAN . . . tackle . . . fastest lineman . . . aggressive defensive tackle.

27—SHERWOOD SENSINGER . . . end . . . tricky pass shagger . . . everlasting energy.

39—RICHARD FARR . . . tackle . . . snappy charger . . . really opened up the holes.

38—BRUCE FENSTERMACHER . . . halfback . . . terrific defensive halfback . . . good ball carrier.

5—RONALD FITZGERALD . . . end . . . held in the end runs well . . . good football mind.

36—HERMAN METZ . . . guard . . . quiet, but hard hitting . . . slick backer-up.

23—* BROOKE MOYER . . . guard . . . power packed . . . good future next year.

20—WALTER WAY . . . fullback . . . ran the end sweeps with great perfection . . . tricky tackler.

31—HAROLD WAMBOLD . . . center . . . dependable pivot man . . . hopeful prospect for the '52 squad.

37—RICHARD SHELLY . . . end . . . specialist in snagging passes . . . had his whole heart in the game.

33—HARRY COYLE . . . halfback . . . speedy back . . . aggressive backer-up.

12—WILLIAM COALE . . . fullback . . . with Bill it's bang, bang all the time . . . has two big seasons ahead.

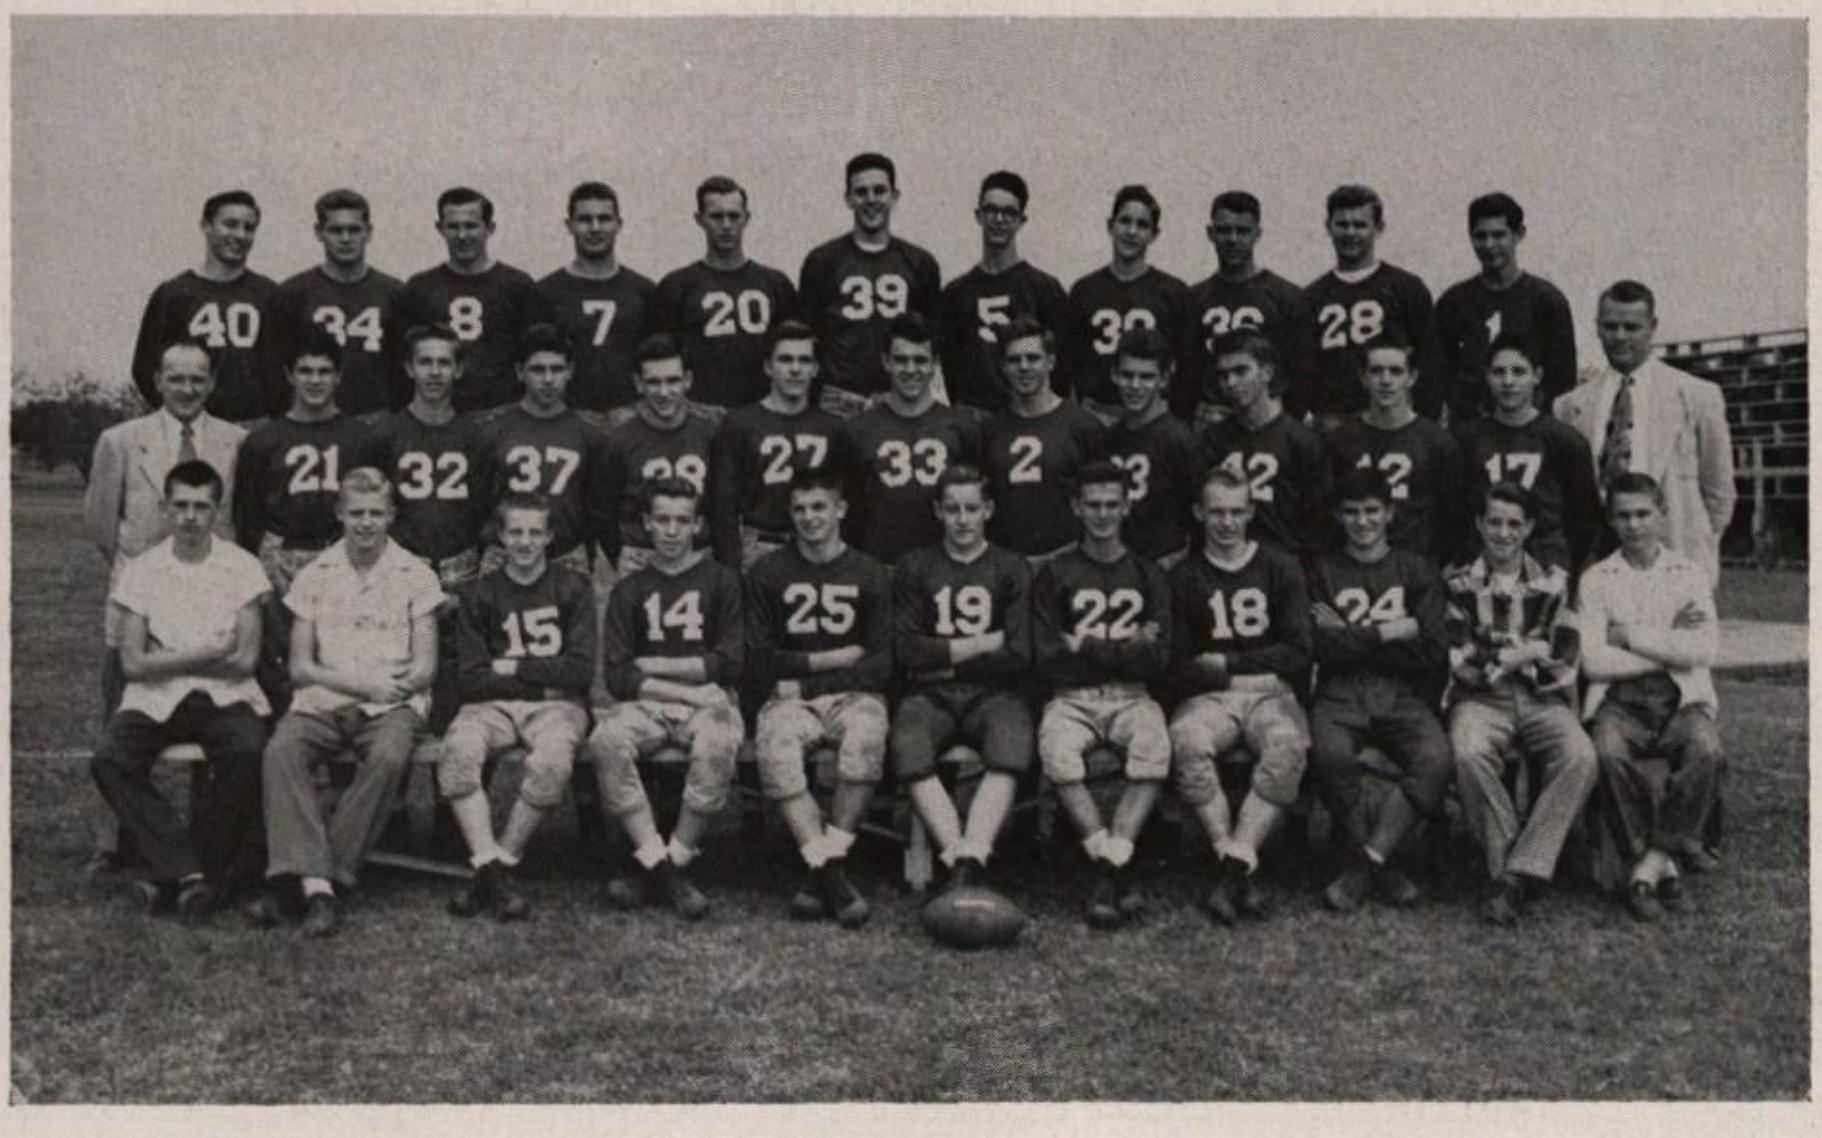

42—ROBERT FAMOUS . . . quarterback . . . came in handy . . . only a sophomore, future play maker.

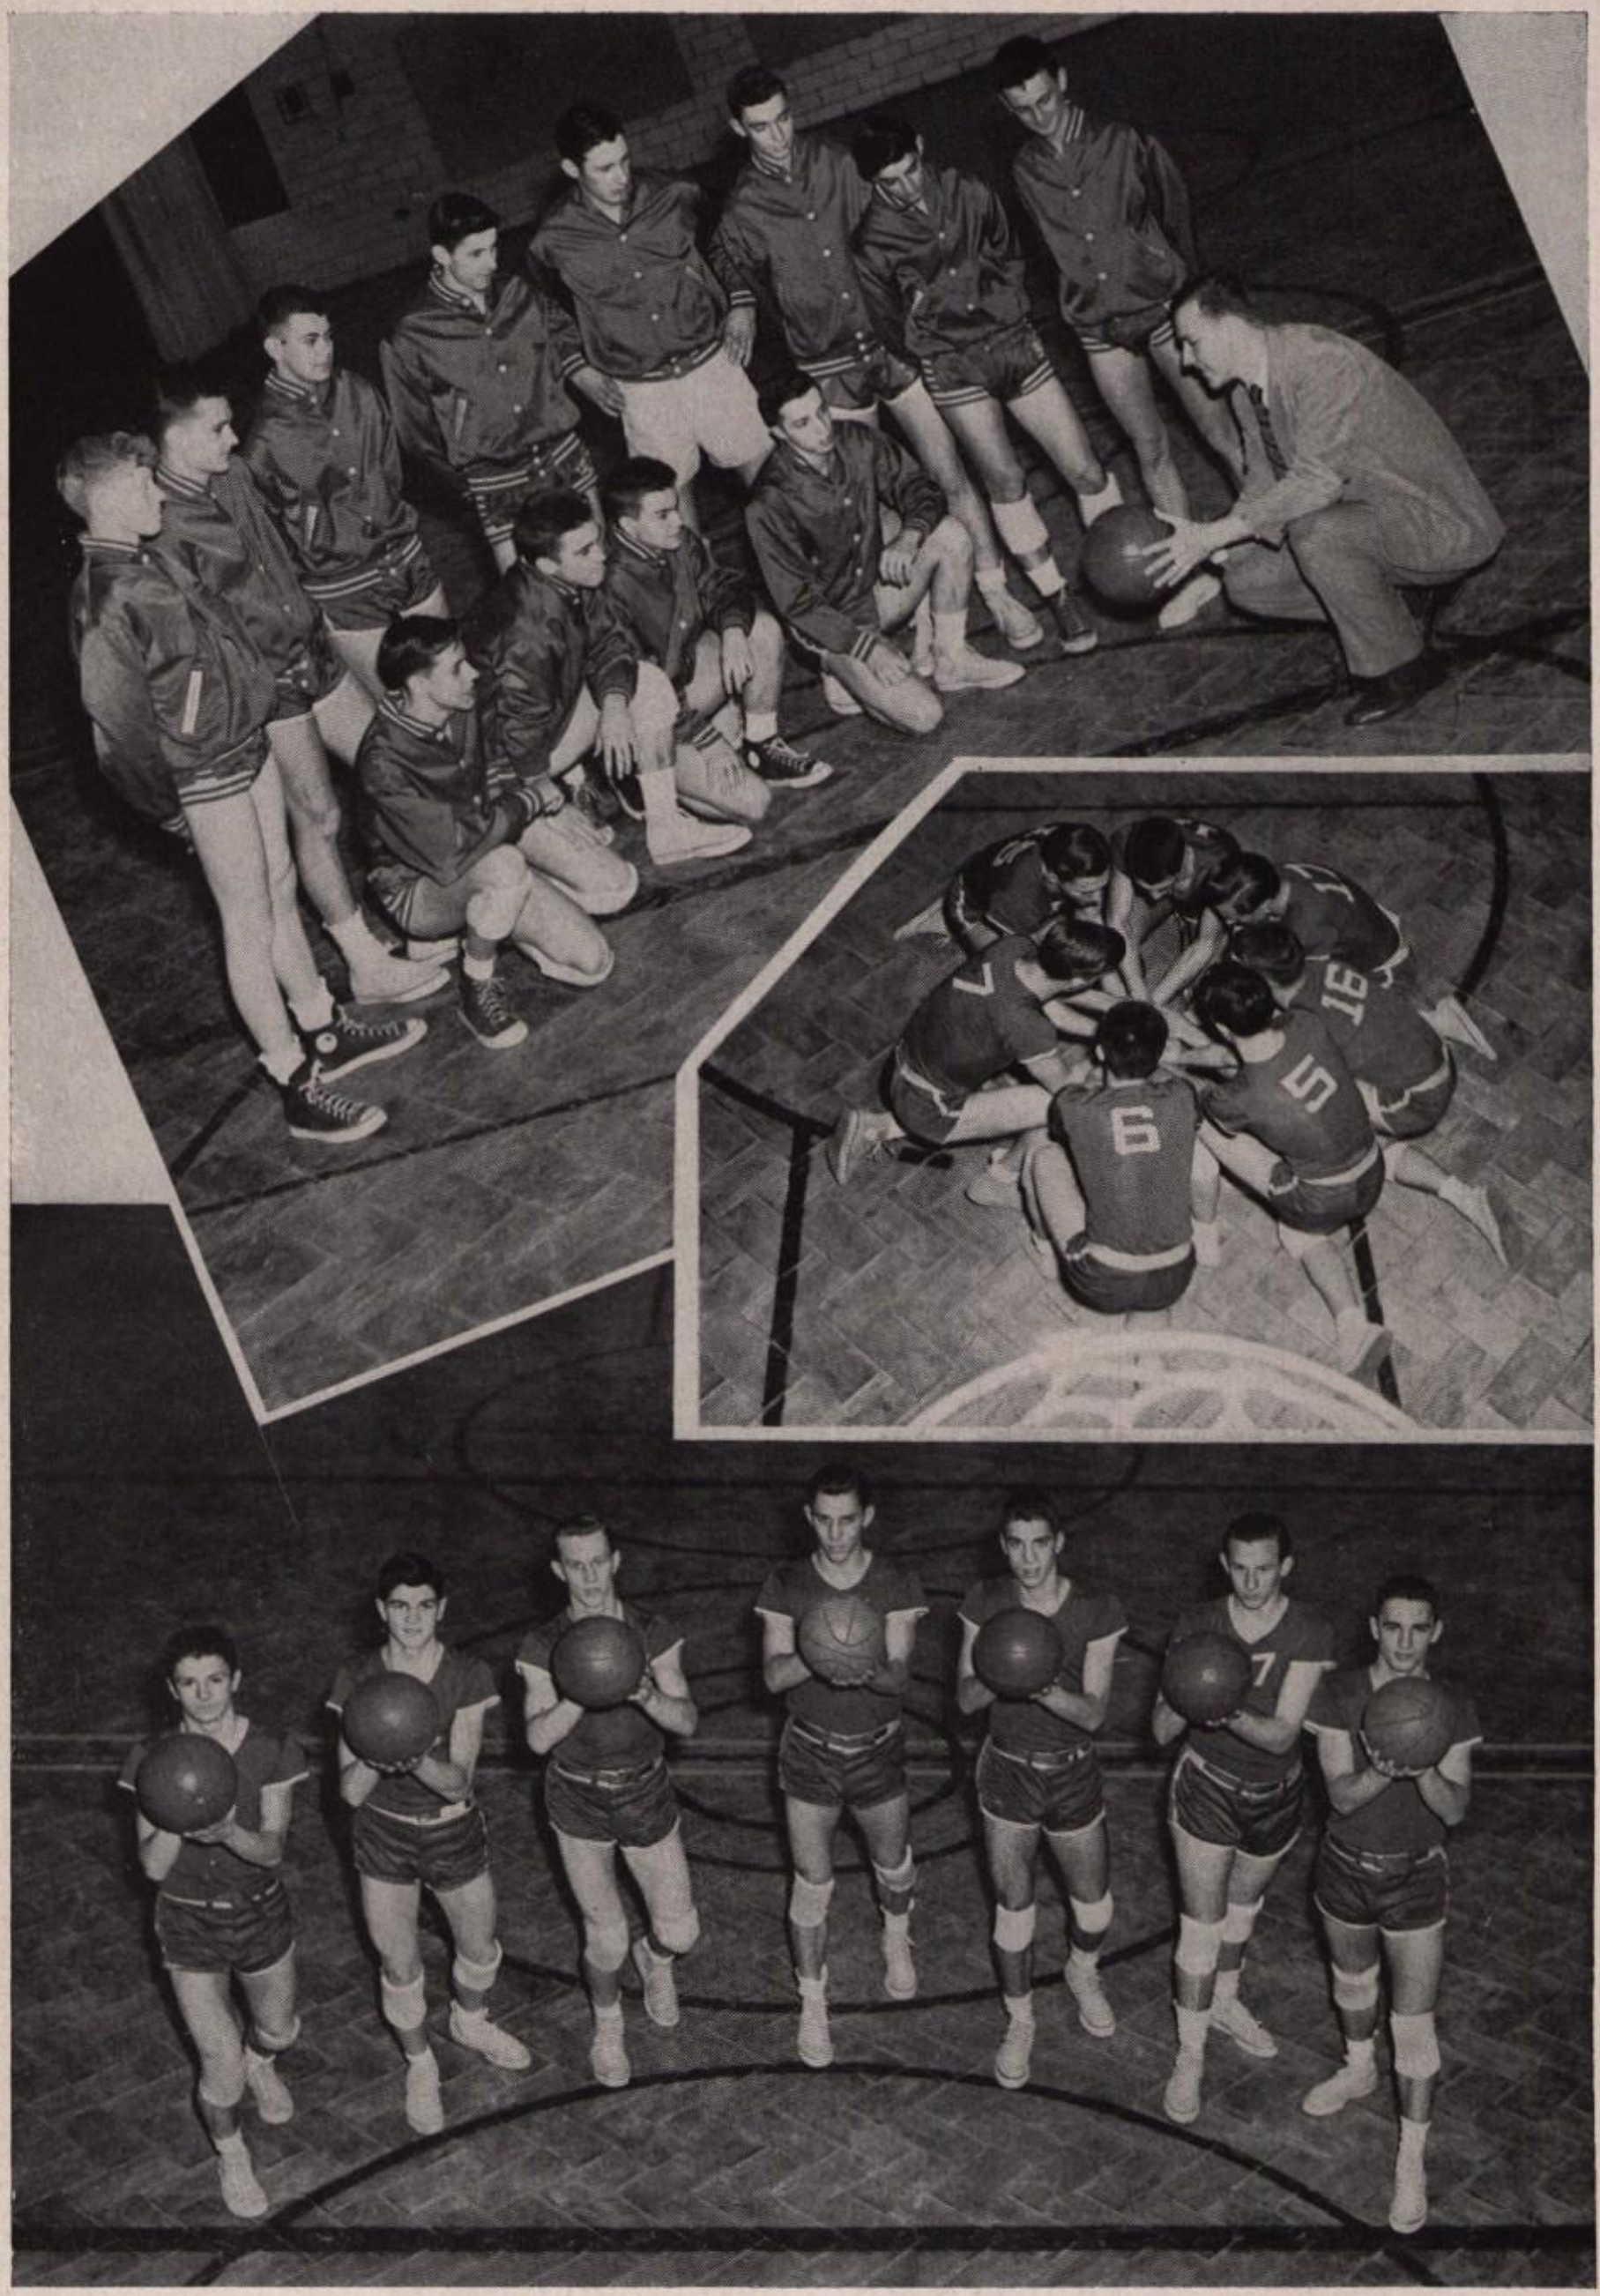

14—RICHARD GERHART . . . guard . . . scrappiest fellow on the squad . . . never gave up.

32—OTTO QUINQUE . . . good all-round player . . . another gridder with bright future.

Tournament Tussles

Coach Eisenhart's basketball squad did not occupy a very prominent position in the final Bux-Mont Conference standings for 1952, but the Indians did play a fast, hard game of ball, giving all their foes a real run for the money. Although they were victorious in only three games, the fellows always kept on fighting until the final gun, as shown by the fact that five of their defeats were by margins of four points or less.

The Indians were capable of playing brilliant basketball at times, but too often they wilted under pressure. Such was the case in the second Springfield game, when they tied the score in the last minute, only to lose by three points in an overtime period. In spite of their unimpressive record, the Big Red basketeers provided plenty of thrills and excitement for the fans who came to watch them play.

Champions of the Diamond

The 1952 baseball season promises to be another thriller for Coach Smoot and his hustling swatters. With seven lettermen returning from last year's undefeated Bux-Mont champions, the Indians have more than a good chance to win first place again. Although he shies away from any pre-season predictions, the veteran mentor admits that the potential power at the plate, a well-rounded hurling staff, and many newcomers from last year's championship Junior High squad all paint a promising picture.

The pitching department is paced by southpaw Ferrill Alderfer, who delivered many powerful punches for the great team of 1951, and right-handed curve-ball flipper, John Bergey. Bob Kramer, Otto Quinque, and Russell Umstead will also see action from the mound. Arlin Lapp, ace receiver and top-notch hitter, will be backed behind the plate by Herman Metz. The infield slots are filled by Walt Way at first base, Don Benner at second, Jim Bergey or Bob Famous at the hot corner, and "bangin" Bob Shisler at shortstop. At the printing of this article, the outfield positions, other than Muirray Alderfer in left field, are still undecided.

The local nine will battle a new opponent in two of their twelve games scheduled. Springfield, a newcomer to the Bux-Mont league, will join the ranks of the usual opposers—Quakertown, Sell-Perk, Upper Moreland, Ambler, and Lansdale. When you receive this book, we sincerely hope that, with the clearing of the dust, the mighty Smootmen will once again be proclaimed champs.

Knights of the Cinder Track

Track, which for years had been forced into the background as a result of the great interest in baseball at S. H. S., is at last beginning to gain the interest and recognition it deserves. This season Coach Patton's twenty-man squad looked forward to a schedule which included five dual meets, in addition to the Bux-Mont Meet at Lansdale.

The team was led by a trio of returning lettermen—sprinters, David Musselman and Bruce Fenstermacher, and broadjump artist, Joe Pullen. A host of promising newcomers helped to round out a very well-balanced squad. On the whole, prospects for the season were excellent, and it appeared that Souderton's cindermen would give their Bux-Mont Conference rivals a real run for their money.

*Non-league game

The hockey season began with a victory over the Golden Bears of Upper Moreland giving the team hope of overcoming the jinx of a losing streak which had followed them for several years. In the next two games Souderton tied the score with the teams of Doylestown and Sell-Perk, still maintaining a lead in the league. Following these ties, they came back to win over Lansdale. Then, in a decisive battle with Quakertown, they came through with another victory to complete the season undefeated.

The constant and tireless efforts of the '51 season's hockey team did not go unrewarded. In the trophy case of our high school stands a new figure denoting the hockey championship of the Bux-Mont League, a tribute to their successful season of '51.

Furthermore, we wish to mention and congratulate two of the girls who received special honors. A trophy was awarded by the Bux-Mont Field Hockey Association to Kay Fretz for her outstanding defensive playing and to Mary Reiff a similar award was made by the Rittenhouse Jewelry Store for her exceptional ability as an offensive player.

The girls who earned the letter "S" were:
NANCY FREED—aggressive right wing.
KAY FRETZ—center halfback . . . great asset to the team.
MARILYN HAGEY—hard-working center forward.
JEAN HUNSBERGER—steady, defensive player . . . left fullback.
MERLIE HUNSICKER—promising center forward for next year.
BEVERLY OPDYKE—alert goalie . . . possessor of fourth year letter.
MARY REIFF—high-scoring left inner.
DORIS WIREMAN—determined right inner.

This year's basketball team proved to be quite a challenge to the other teams in the league, as they remained in the running for the championship until their last game with Sell-Perk when they were defeated by only two points. Although their efforts were not rewarded by a championship trophy, they received many words of approval from their loyal fans.

They started the season with a "bang" as they topped Hatboro 62–6. However, this was only a morale booster and not a league game. They defeated each team in the league once and finished the season with a record of .500.

Jean Boehm was presented with a trophy for being the most valuable player on the team. She was chosen not only for her high scoring ability, but also because of her keen spirit and willingness to win.

Janet Bickel captained the team throughout the season and Diane Edelman managed it.

Batting on the Green

Souderton High School won all three baseball trophies in the Bux-Mont League during the 1951 season—the girls' softball trophy, the senior high baseball trophy, and the junior high baseball trophy. The Red and White lassies are promising to do their share toward repeating this feat in 1952.

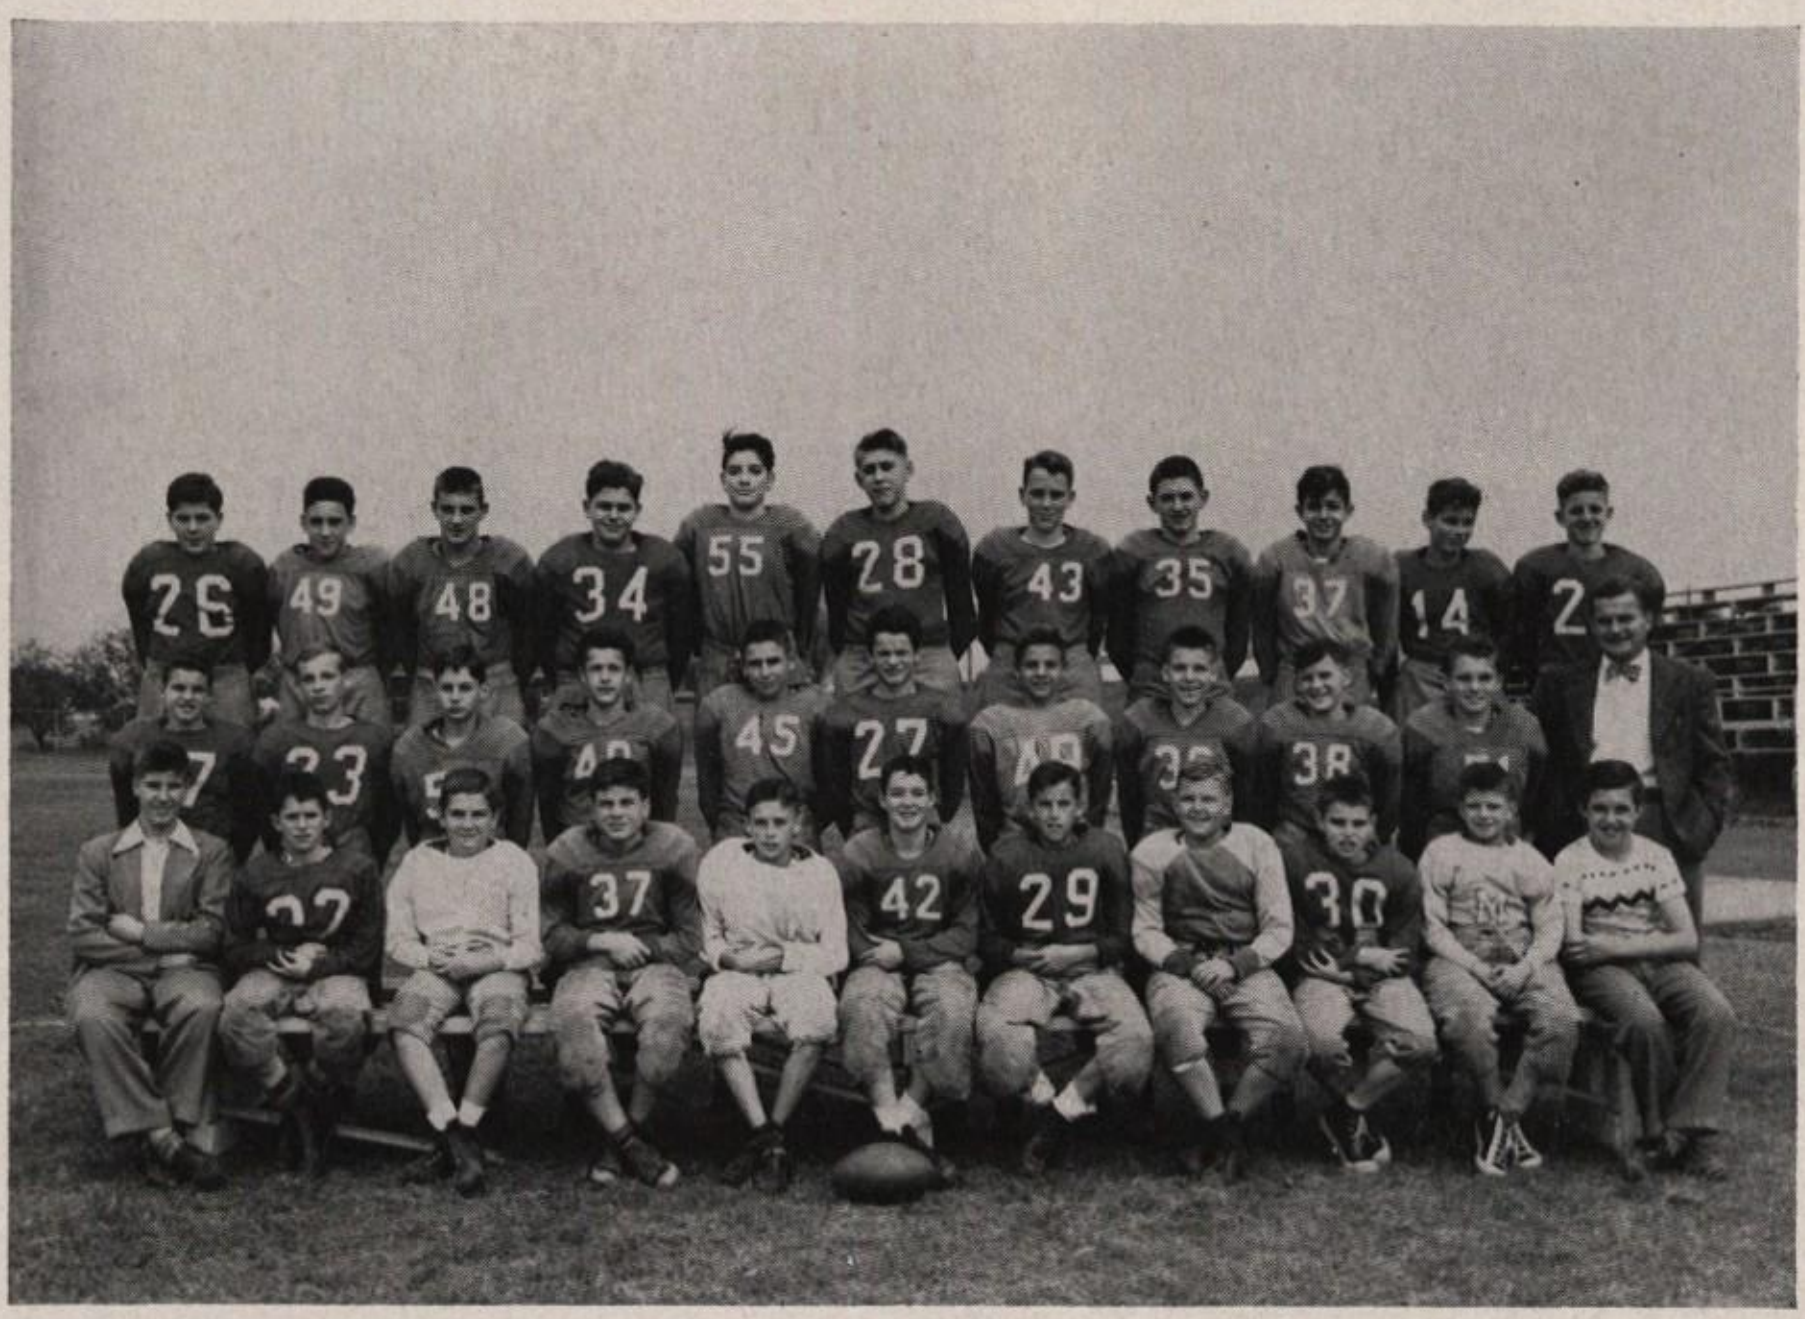

According to the records, Coach White stands a good chance to accomplish this; seven lettermen are back this year—Kathleen Kramer; Marjorie Koffel; Janet Bickel; Ruth Derstine; Beverly Opdyke; Mary Reiff; and Merlie Hunsicker. The girls are showing the same excellent form and batting power which won them the victory last year.

The opening game is still three weeks away at the writing of this article, but for several weeks now, eager players have been out on the diamond whenever weather permits. The spirit to win is really in that softball team, and there's a big possibility that the S. H. S. lasses will ring the bell again.

The Mighty Mites were at it again and came through fighting in 1951. Although they won only one game they kept up their spirit and did a fine job of learning the fundamental tactics of football for future use at S. H. S.

Since many of the boys were out-of-towners and had never played football before they had much to learn about the game. They attended practices faithfully, however, and improved considerably as the season progressed.

Keep plugging Mighty Mites! Better luck next season.

Jolly Jousts

The Big Red "Wee Warriors" made a poor showing in the first half of the 1951–1952 basketball season. New material plus lack of team co-operation accounted for six straight losses.

The little fellows, however, refused to acknowledge defeat and kept right on trying. In the end their spirit paid off. In their return game with Lansdale, they suddenly found themselves and came through with a 37 to 30 victory. From then on, it was clear sailing. They continued to win, beating Central Bucks and Hilltown; ending the season with a 35 to 26 victory over Sell-Perk.

Coach Maza is mighty proud of his junior high team and of their fighting spirit. He's expecting great things from them next year.

Memories

In Memoriam

He walked so quietly among us,
Performing each particular task
With meticulous efficiency;
Skillfully scheduling each class
To utilize to best advantage
Each specific moment of the day.
So patiently he listened,
With sympathetic ear,
To large and small complaints alike,
From weary disheartened pedagogues
Or frightened baffled students;
Straightening with expert hands
Their tangled paths,
Quieting their fears,
Reviving saddened spirits;
That oft-times we were scarce
Aware of his presence,
Or realized who so ably
Was ministering to our needs.

So conscientious was he,
Exercising his authority
When the occasion demanded;
Standing for what he believed was right,
Upholding order and decency;
Sharing his wisdom with us
In a thousand little ways—
The potency of the modulated voice
Which he raised neither in anger
Nor in excitement,
The efficacy of the well-turned phrase,
The charm of the soft answer,
The magic of "Thank you."
How simply he explained
The intricacies of grammer,
The haunting beauty of Evangeline.
How greatly he admired
The magnificence of Robert Browning,
The idealism of William Lyon Phelps.

So suddenly he left us,
We've scarce had time to realize
The enormity of our loss.
Our hearts are sorrowful,
And yet we know he has been called
Unto a higher plane,
Perchance to greater responsibilities.
Upon the shrine of memory,
We will light the candle of devotion
For a man to whom service
Was the breath of life,
And to whom teaching
Was a goodly heritage, indeed.

Class Song

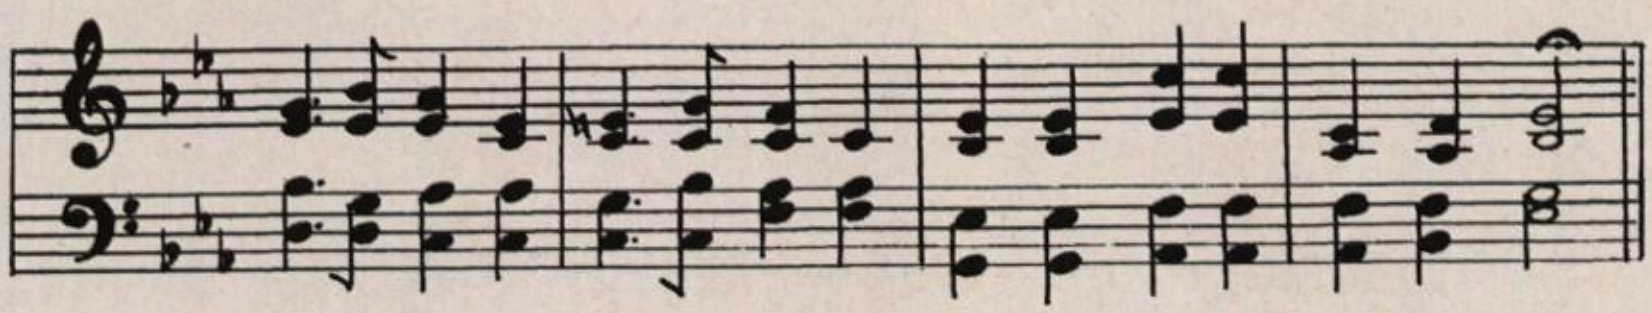

As our gradu-ation cometh, And farewells are drawing nigh,

We recall our cherished memories, Of joys shared in Souderton High,

Though we leave our school behind us, And the friends we're gathered here,

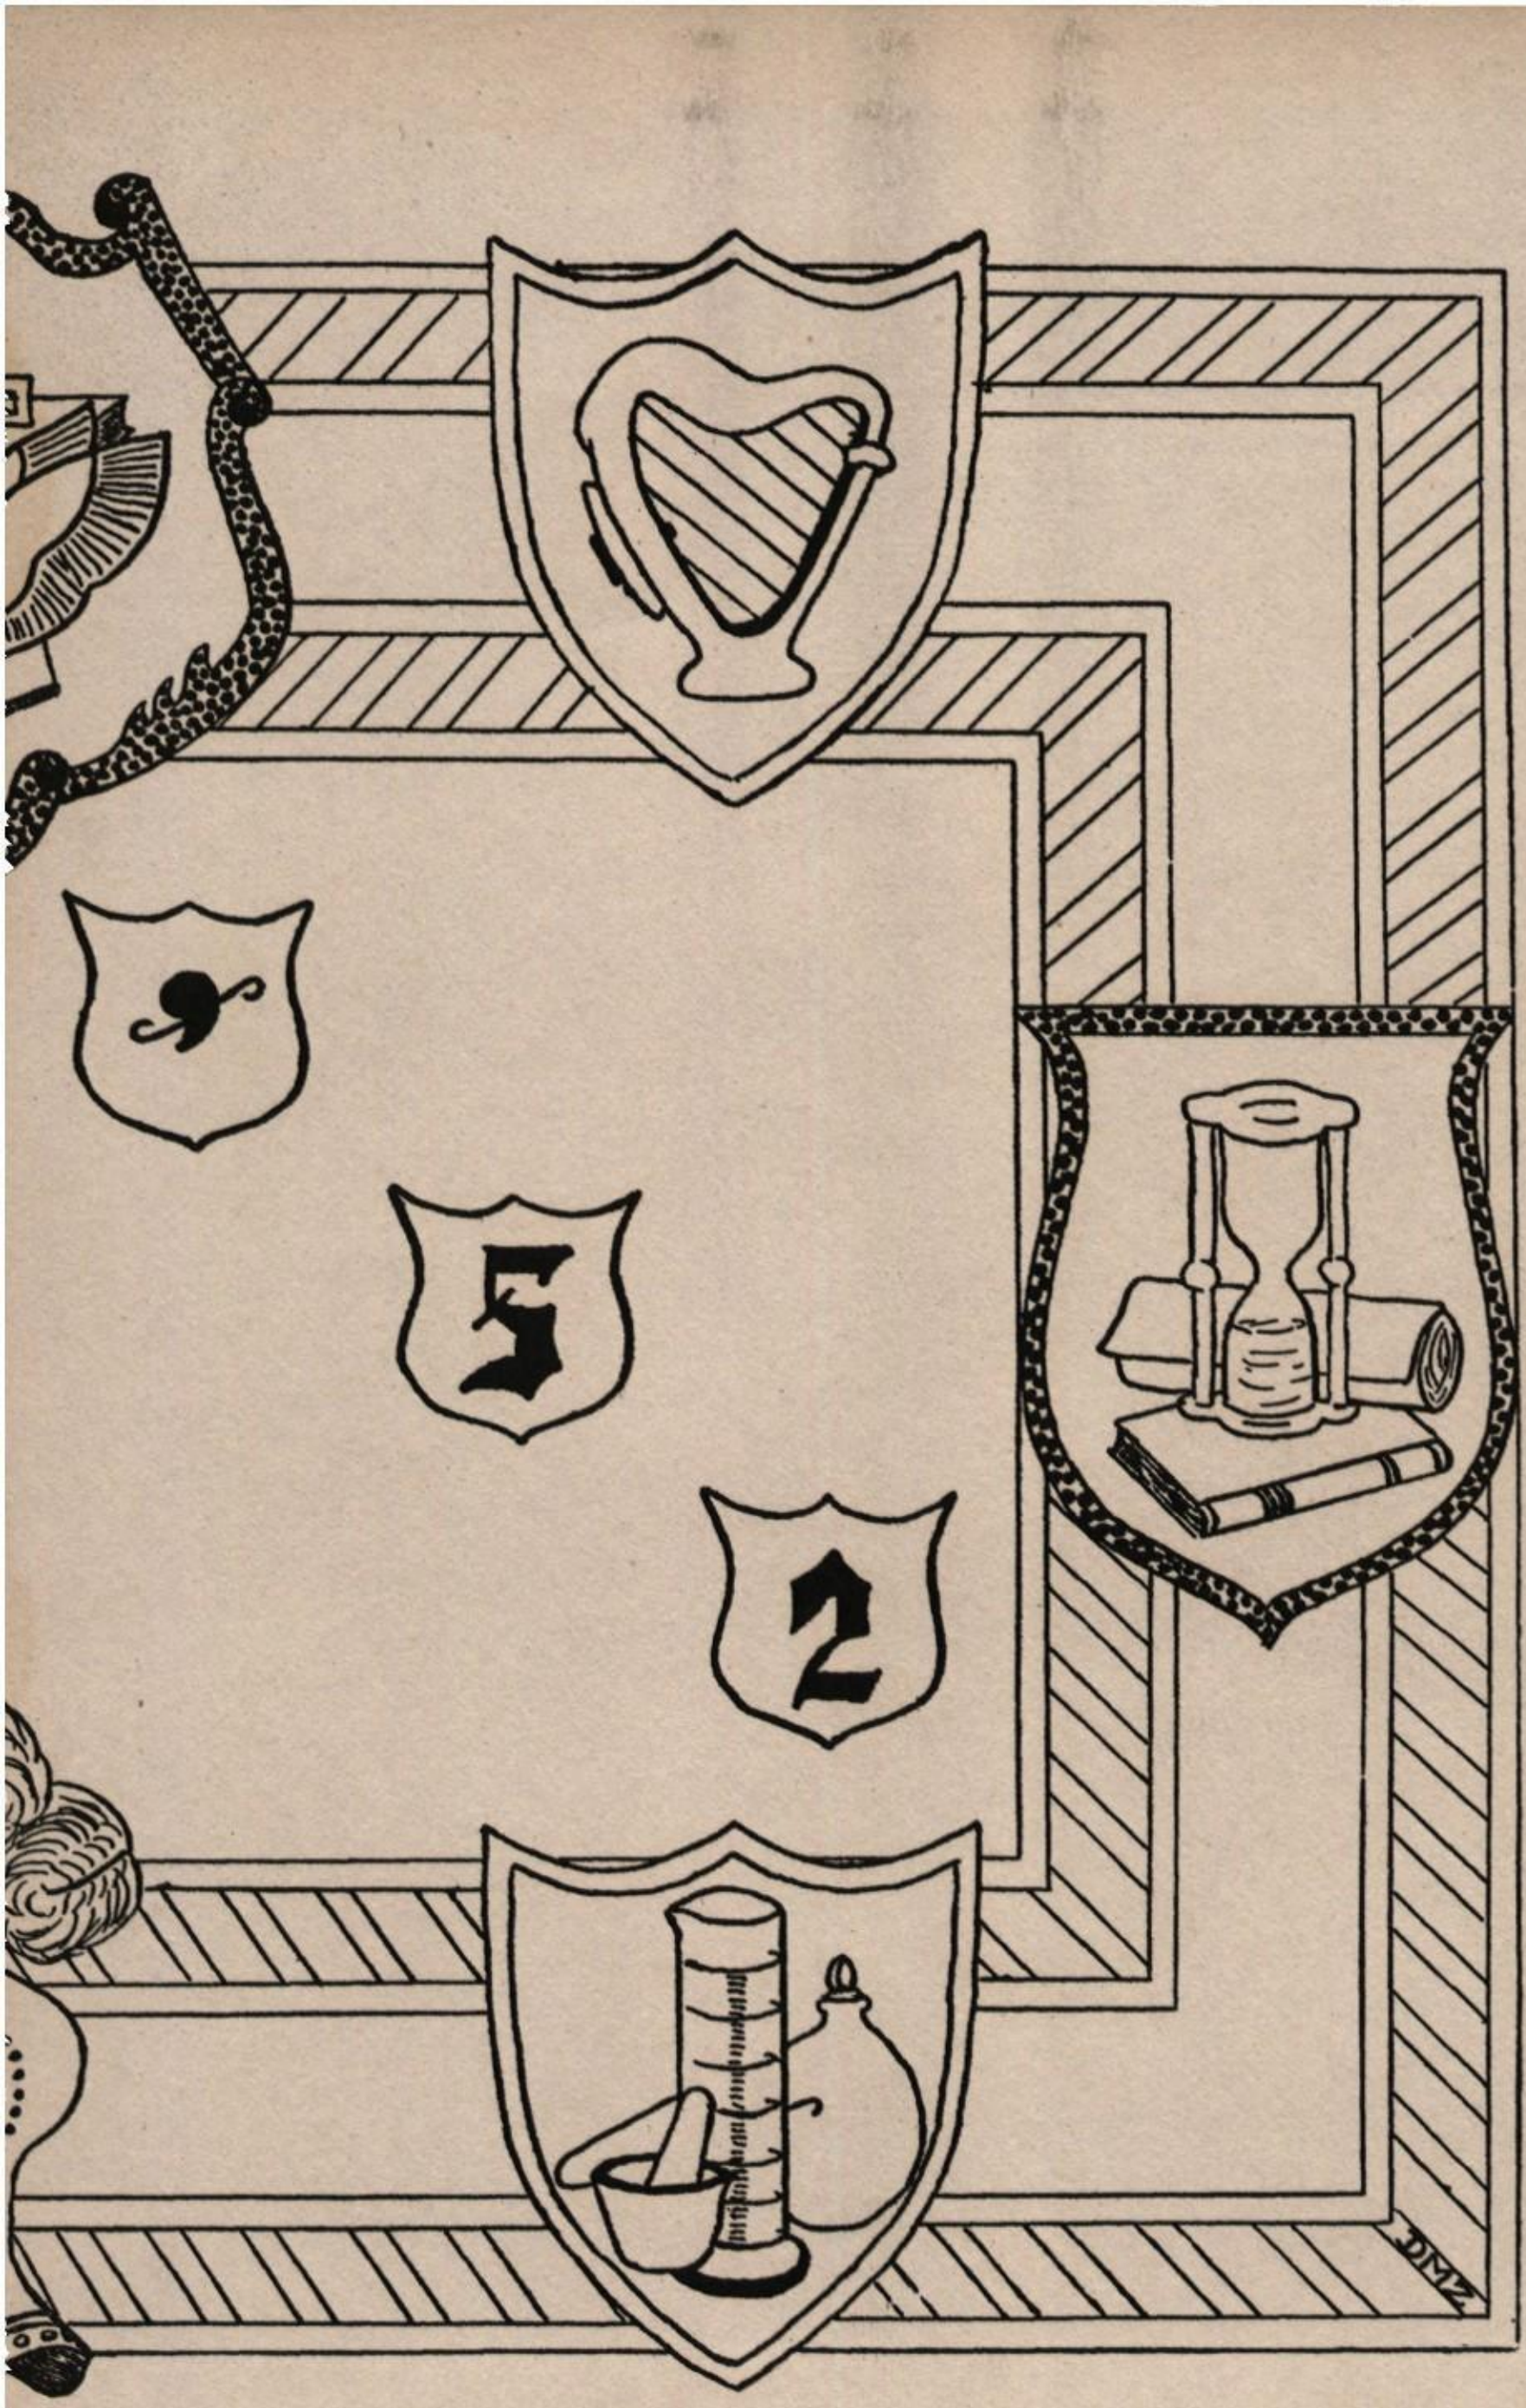

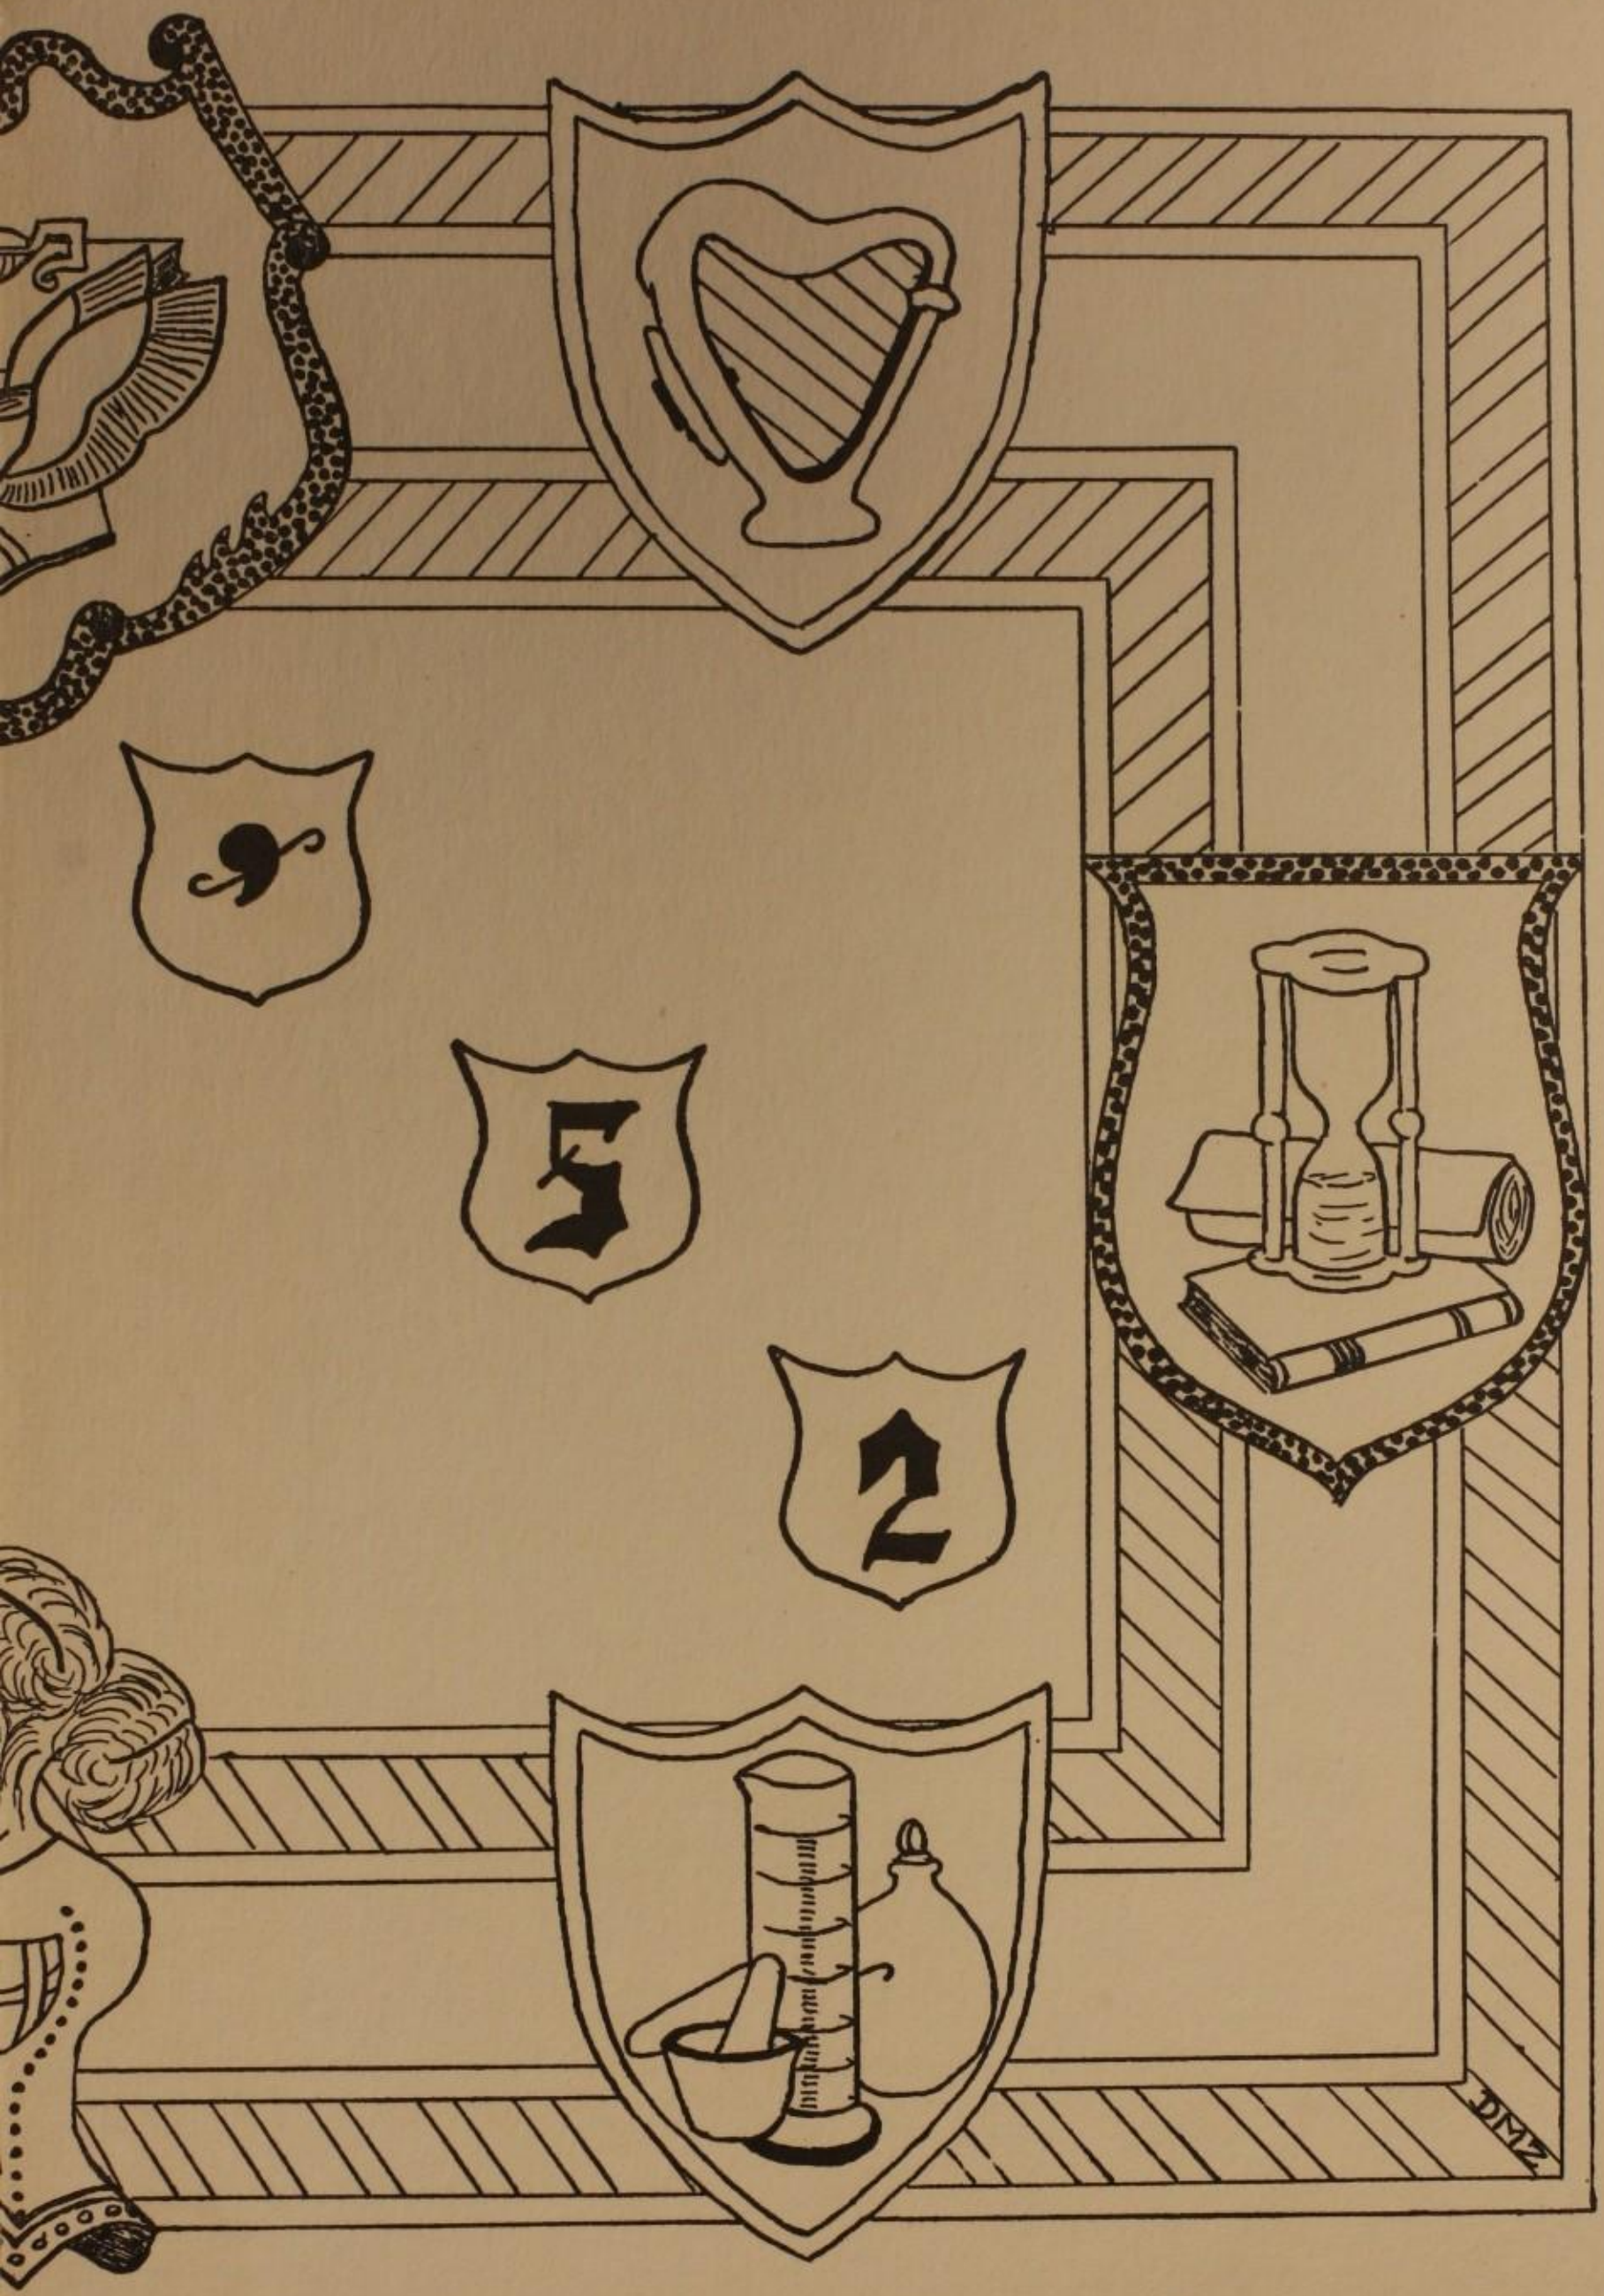

Alma Mater, Alma Mater, In our hearts we hold thee dear.
